Spring Garden Promenade to Open Its Doors Wednesday at Jellett's

All flower arrangement exhibits are sponsored by clubs, not individuals. Prizes in each of the six classes are $10 first prize, $5 second prize.

The promenade will open Wednesday with a tea and fashion show by Hill'n Dale and modeled by members of the three sponsoring groups — Orinda Garden Club, Lafayette Forum and Walnut Creek Women's Club.

Political Melodrama: What Makes Van Tassell Run -- and How Come?

By POLITICUS

In one of the most unusual political maneuvers seen in these parts in many moons, Ray D. Van Tassell at the last minute filed papers as a candidate for state senator after he had already released a two-page, typewritten statement announcing he would run against Jack Cummings for district supervisor.

Danville, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda newspapers carried Van Tassell's supervisory announcement on Thursday and Friday, but about the same time he jumped into the contest for state senator against George Miller Jr., and Cliff Anglim, both democrats. Van Tassell, a republican, filed on both tickets.

WHAT'S THE PITCH?

Van Tassell had local political observers going about in circles and they still haven't figured out all the angles.

Meanwhile, supporters of Jack Pedder for supervisor are jubilant, because they felt that Van Tassell would have pulled a certain bloc of Danville-Alamo-San Ramon votes, which are important to Pedder.

HAPPIER PEDDER

Pedder camp is happier now that the race will be decided in the primary, for after all elections are costly affairs. Local observers said that although Van Tassell was a political unknown and probably would have run third, he might have grabbed enough votes to throw the race into the general election. (If no candidate earns a majority in the primary, the two top men go into the general.)

What prompted the sudden switch? Some dopesters argue that Van Tassell hoped up to the final days before filing that Pedder would withdraw, but that flopped.

Some say that Arthur Carlson, state GOP bigshot who lives in the Danville area, and some of Pedder's supporters explained to Van Tassell that no republican was running for state senate from the county and here was his big chance.

These same politicians further pointed out that Miller Jr. and Anglim might chew each other up and, if this is a Republican year, Van Tassell just might slip into the job.

POLITICAL NOTES:

Observers are wondering how come the County Republican Central Committee could endorse Republican J. Robert Friborg for Congress with another republican, Leslie J. Freeman, in the race. Supposedly there should be no endorsement until the general election.

As predicted in these columns several weeks ago, Clarence D. Erickson, a republican, former mayor of Richmond and currently a city councilman there, has announced for state assembly. Although a republican, Erickson may get the AFL endorsement and will be strong in industrial Richmond.

Another aspirant jumped into the assembly ring — Leo Armstrong of Richmond who filed on both tickets.

Democrat George Vasilakis of Port Chicago withdrew from this race, thus leaving Robert Condon of Walnut Creek the only demo in the campaign. Condon has also cross-filed on the republican and independent-progressive tickets.

In the fifth district, Supervisor Richard J. Trembath faces three other candidates — John J. Rodgers, Ernest J. Arata and Kingsley M. Shaw. But W. J. Buchanan, who has been on the board for 44 years, is unopposed.

Lafayette P.T.A. Completes Plans For Garden Tour

Plans for the Lafayette P.T.A. Garden Tour to be held April 16 have been completed and maps showing the homes to be visited were to be distributed at today's meeting of the Grammar School P.T.A.

The gardens to be seen on the tour are those of Mesdames Robert Bridges, William Freeman, Clyde Glaeser and Vad Jelton. On the day of the tour these gardens will be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Punch and cookies will be served at two of the homes.

At the meeting today Dr. Edith Bryan of Berkeley was scheduled to talk on the relation of competition of children within the family.

Condon Pledges Fight For C.V.P.

Robert L. Condon, Walnut Creek attorney who is a candidate for the California State Assembly from this District, pledged himself to "an all-out fight for an adequate power supply to power-starved Contra Costa County."

"Contra Costa County, potentially one of the greatest industrial centers in the West, is gripped in a PG&E made quasi-depression," Condon said. "Men are out of work, business, industrial and farm operations are curtailed or shut down, and new businesses, seeking to locate here, are unable to do so."

"This is the price we are paying for PG&E's own selfish shortsightedness. I intend to do everything in my power to get some immediate relief for this area and to spur completion of the Central Valley Project, which PG&E has fought for so long," he stated.

Voting Precincts For Orinda Listed

New Orinda voting precincts for the next election have recently been announced by Supervisor Jack Cummings.

The division into six precincts will mean shorter trips to the polls. An additional precinct has been added at Glorietta Valley, known as Precinct 7.

The precincts are: Precinct 1, Park Terrace section; Precinct 2, Miner Road, Sleepy Hollow, etc.; Precinct 3, Around Country Club, Las Espiral; Precinct 4, Las Vegas, east of Lake Cascade, Camino Sobrante, voting at Orinda School; Precinct 5, East side of Moraga Highway, including Monte Vista and south through Glorietta; and Precinct 6, West side of Moraga Highway, Oak Springs, Moraga Woodlands, etc.

As announced in the legal notice in this issue, voting will be conducted at grammar schools in Canyon, Moraga, Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek as specified hours.

Political Club Endorses Three New Members

The County Veterans Political Club Tuesday evening in a meeting at Richmond endorsed three candidates.

The forty veterans present voted endorsements for Clarence D. Erickson for state assembly; J. Robert Friborg, for Congressman; and Clifford G. Anglim for state senate.

M. M. Garrett, president of the club, said the endorsements were based on the candidates "record of Americanism." Although not a veteran, Erickson was endorsed, "because no veteran candidate has had the Americanism record to meet the club's qualifications."

The three candidates spoke briefly in their own behalf. Next meeting will be held in Martinez April 16.

Dedication Service Held for Church

Dedication services for the new Orinda Community Church Hall will be held Sunday morning, April 18.

Rev. Harley H. Gill will be a speaker on the program, planned by a special committee consisting of Milton L. Selby, Stanley M. Hudd, Galen M. Fisher, Mrs. R. E. Wilson, and Rev. Fred Morrow.

An organ was given to the Church by a member in memory of her father. This unit organ, with detached console, has been under construction in the San Francisco studios of Felix Schoenstein Sons.

Association Gives Group Donation

The Orinda Better Business Association is contributing as a group to the Red Cross.

Members were sent stamped envelopes for their donations, thus making it unnecessary for the volunteers to solicit directly.

Appeal to Widen Highway Will Go to State Group

An appeal for the elimination of the two- and three-lane death traps on Mt. Diablo Boulevard from Walnut Creek to the Tunnel will be presented to the State Highway Commission by the Central Contra Costa County Citizens Traffic Committee, according to Damon Eckley, chairman.

Preparing for this appeal to a "higher authority," the committee this week asked Col. John H. Skeggs, State division engineer, for detailed data on the long-sought-after widening project. Col. Skeggs in numerous conferences has stated there are other highways in Northern California that require reconstruction even before Mt. Diablo.

DETERMINED

Eckley said Col. Skeggs was cooperative in recent conferences but "our constituents have expressed a determination to continue efforts to eliminate the three-lane roadway on Tunnel Road." The following information was requested:

1—Estimated cost of widening

Meet Joseph Sheaff New Superintendent

Meet Joseph Sheaff — the newly-appointed district superintendent of the Orinda Union Grammar School.

Mr. Sheaff will succeed Richard Davis whose resignation has been accepted at the end of the current school term.

That the new superintendent is of exceptionally high calibre can be attested to by the fact that in 1945 he was named the "outstanding citizen of San Leandro." This honor, which goes to one person each year, was voted by a citizens' committee.

CHECK LIST

Checking over just a few of the highlights of Mr. Sheaff's civic activities is sufficient to understand why he was M. Outstanding.

In addition to all of his school duties and activities, last year he was president of the San Leandro Welfare Council. He served on the council for four years.

He has wielded the gavel as president of the San Leandro Junior Chamber of Commerce, as well as serving as vice-president and secretary of the organization.

CURRENT ACTIVITIES

Mr. Sheaff is currently a director of the Family Service Bureau in Oakland and a member of the Broadmoor Men's Club.

He is vitally interested in recreational problems and is a member of the city Recreation Commission.

He has taught in San Leandro since 1931 and has held the principalship of the McKinley Grammar School since 1935.

He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, honorary education society as well as numerous education groups.

Mr. Sheaff is married and has two sons, Peter, age 12; and Joseph, 10.

MASTERS DEGREE

He graduated University of Santa Clara in 1930 and earned his teaching credential at San Jose State the next year. He was awarded his administrative credential at Stanford and his master's degree from University of California in 1941.

Mr. Sheaff said, "We've always wanted to come out and live in Orinda and now it's more wonderful than ever to work and live there at the same time. I am very happy to have been selected. Orinda is a growing community and I would like to grow with it."

Mr. Sheaff hopes to move here when he can find suitable quarters.

Local Red Cross Chapter Fills Many Needs for Veterans and Community

What does the Walnut Creek Chapter of the Red Cross do? The first obligation of the Red Cross is to the service-man and veteran and their families. The Home Service Committee handles all types of personal problems for them. 1471 cases passed through the office in the last 30 months.

Financial assistance, aid in securing benefits under the Veteran's Administration, transportation to and from hospitals and clinics, overseas contacts, are all in a day's work for this Committee.

HOSPITAL RECREATION

The Camp and Hospital Committee has given time and money to renovate faded and worn hospital furnishings and has supplied the facilities for hospital recreation. They have packed hundreds of Christmas gifts for men at Camp Stoneman and those on the high seas.

The Gray Ladies are the hospital recreation group who make personal contact with the men by advising, entertaining, giving library and shopping service. With the Camp and Hospital Committee they give a regular monthly dance at Camp Stoneman Hospital and frequently have other parties and outings.

The Motor Corps operates the chapter station wagon as the official transportation committee, working with any department needing its services.

SEW AND SEW

The Production Committee does the sewing and knitting. It works on garment quotas from area headquarters based on requests from military hospitals.

Its present assignment consists of 200 pairs of washable slippers, 100 bedpan covers, 100 hot water bag covers, 50 lounging robes, layettes for the National emergency stockpile, coat sweaters and caps.

The Water Safety Committee managed a summer swim campaign in 1947 which benefited 600 children and is planning an expanded program for this year.

The Accident Prevention Committee, as part of the National effort to reduce the astounding accident toll, is now organized and will soon conduct classes in the schools.

REOPEN BLOOD BANK

As part of the National program to establish blood banks throughout the country so that whole blood or its derivatives will be available free of charge to all who need it, the local chapter anticipates the reopening of a local blood bank as soon as quarters become available.

The Junior Red Cross continues sending gift packages to European school children. Three high school girls participated in a summer camp last July. They have also worked with the Gray Ladies and the Hospital Committee by making tray favors and place cards for holiday hospital parties.

The Book Corner

By RUTH FLETCHER

The roof of a New York apartment house with all its fascinating intrigues, experiences and amusing incidents has been lifted for the reader by Alan Dunn in his "East of Fifth": the story of an apartment house (Simon and Shuster, $2.75).

This is the story, in words and pictures, of 24 hours in the life of a typical 14-story apartment house in any big city. You learn why the "super" has a headache, how the building's mystery woman really spends her time, what the doorman can tell about the tenants by sorting their mail.

In this book Alan Dunn has deftly removed the building's impressive facade and left the 52 apartments and service quarters exposed from cellar to roof — like a huge dollhouse. For anyone who has ever lived in an apartment house, or visited one, and for those who never have, "East of Fifth" will be a vitalizing experience.

BOOK OF ROMANCE

A superb new anthology was published March 12th by Bobbs-Merrill ($4.00) by the editor of the "Fireside Book of Christmas Stories" titled "The Fireside Book of Romance."

Edward Wagenknecht, who did such a thoroughly workmanlike job on the other volume is general editor of this volume, and has as a staff of authors in this volume such names as: Sherwood Anderson, Stephen Vincent Benet, James Norman Hall, Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, W. Somerset Maugham, John Steinbeck, et al finitem.

Everybody has his own definition of romantic reading . . . boy meets girl . . . the spread of a sail . . . the hoofbeats of a running horse . . . so romance is the essence of some of the greatest stories ever written. Here in this huge volume is nearly every phase of the romantic moods as seen by the great storytellers of the past and present in American and English literature.

BY WILL CREED

Will Creed has written a new historical novel which will appeal to the wide audience who enjoyed the "Prince of Foxes". This new work is called "The Sword of Il Grande" (Little-Brown, $3.00).

With the current building boom, the "House for You" by Catherine and Harold Sleeper (Wiley, $5.00) is considered to be head and shoulders above the building, architectural, and house-plan books that have recently appeared. It has a great many cartoons, graphs, and charts to illustrate the salient points of house-planning.

FUNCTIONAL, TOO

Everyone wants a house that will reflect something of his own personality and at the same time suit his practical needs. In a lively, semi-functionalized manner, the book explores the fields of building, buying and renting to show the househunter how he can find or build a house that will pass the test of efficiency, suit his pocket-book and still bear a marked resemblance to his dream house.

Many will remember the situation of the Blandings as personified in "Mr. Blandings's Dream House" in which a house originally planned to cost some $10,000 wound up as costing some $50,000. To avoid such a condition such a book as the above is offered by Catherine and Harold Sleeper.

Patricia McCarthy Has Sixth Birthday Party

Patricia McCarthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. McCarthy of Moraga Road, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday with a party. The Easter theme was predominant and the children played many games and received some lovely prizes.

Those attending were Sandra Lee Wilhite, of Oakland, Bruce Barbee also of Oakland, and Nancy and Cheryl Higgins all of Oakland, Freddy Grandel, Allison Clark, and Patricia's two sisters Margaret and Barbara, all of Lafayette. Kemi Anderson, Peter Lesure, Stephen and Micheal Leonard, and David Cecchini were invited but could not attend. Peter Lesure had lunch and spent Wednesday afternoon with Patricia however instead of being at the party as he was out of town.

Politics and Policy, A Report to You

As problems arise from time to time, an editor is called on to decide whether his paper is "for" or "against" — or if he should take any stand on an issue. He should be influenced by nothing except what he considers the best interest of the people.

And from time to time, we believe an editor should report to his readers why his policy is following a certain line.

Today we report to you.

AN ALL-IMPORTANT ELECTION

The coming election is of utmost importance. A president of the United States will be selected. Our representative in Congress, our state senator and assemblyman will be elected. Also — and it is an important "also" — Lafayette's and Orinda's chief executive and law maker in the county will be named. Certainly our supervisor is our sole link in local government.

Will the Sun endorse or support any candidate for office?

Unequivocally NO.

It is our firm belief that an editor (or in larger newspapers, the publisher or group of stockholders) has no justification for attempting to influence Mr. Citizen's vote. There is one exception: when a thoroughly dishonest or dangerous candidate threatens to win, then expose him and oppose him.

ATTN: KNOWLAND, HEARST, ETC.

Other than for this reason, why should Mr. Joseph Knowland, or Mr. W. R. Hearst, or Mr. Paul Smith or Mr. Frank Clarvoe tell you how to vote?

Certainly we shall not belittle your intelligence and tell you to cast your ballot for John Doe, just because WE think you should.

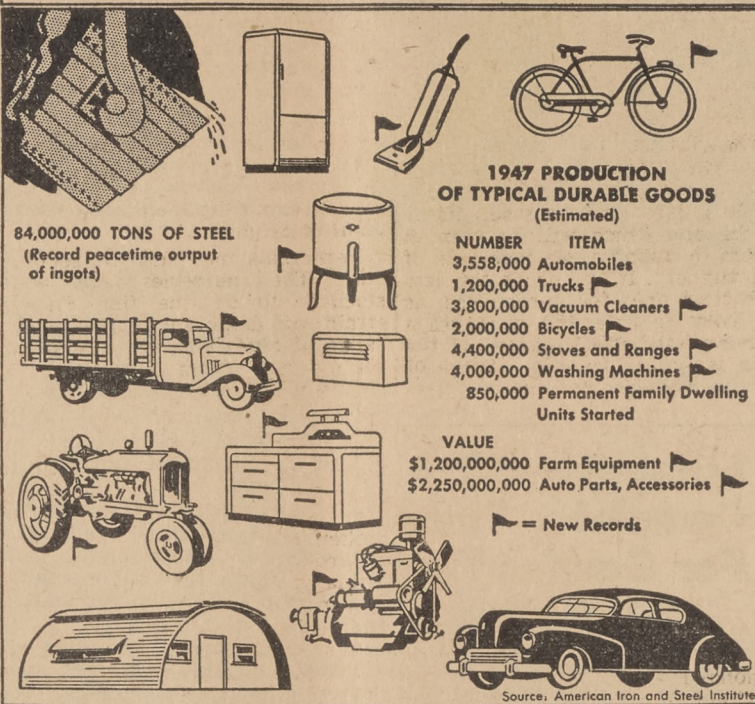

Now this does not imply that we are uninterested in the political scene. Actually, of late we have devoted more space each week to politics than the weeklies in our neighboring towns combined. The campaign and election is news, big news.

We are spending much time and effort to find out who is going to run and why, who will support whom, and so on. We do not withhold information, unless it is definitely unreliable. We believe that our readers are entitled to the fullest news coverage possible.

Our columns are open to all candidates for their opening statements and we will publish their pictures. (But they must furnish us with these.) Our columns, however, are not available to purely campaign literature.

Our editorial voice is devoted to the best interest of Lafayette and Orinda and the United States. It is for this reason that we are not a partisan paper.

Forum Installation Program Includes Virginia Blair, Well Known Soprano

The Lafayette Forum will hold its annual installation Tea next Tuesday at 2 o'clock in the hall of the Community Church. Virginia Blair, well known soprano of the Bay Area, is to be the guest soloist. For the past few years Miss Blair has been traveling, dividing her time between grand opera and light opera.

Her tour with the San Carlo Grand Opera Co. included appearances in all the major cities of California and the Northwest, and extended to New York City. Miss Blair sang Marguerite in "Faust", Nedda in "Pagliacci", Micaela in "Carmen", and Musetta in "Bohème."

The Savoy Comic Opera Co. tours lasted a year and a half and took the company all through the Northwest, the Southwest and the deep South, as well as Hollywood and Salt Lake City. Miss Blair sang all the prima donna parts in such Gilbert and Sullivan favorites as "The Mikado," "Pinafore," "Pirates of Penzance," "Patience" and "Ruddigore."

During her brief visits here with her parents, the C. C. Baums, on Oak Hill Road, Miss Blair found time to appear as guest soloist with such well known organizations as the Oakland Symphony, Orpheus Club, Loring Club, the Unruh Philharmonic Chorus and the East Bay Opera League.

The election of officers for the Forum for the coming year, and the installation ceremony will take place following the musical program. Tea will be served by Mrs. W. G. Ferguson and her committees which includes Mesdames:

Neill Cornwall, Annette Cody, H. W. Guppy, H. L. Morris, F. L. King, and A. E. Huston. The hall will be decorated for the occasion by Mrs. R. T. Duncan and Mrs. Evan Jeffreys. Guests are welcome.

Traffic Count Made on Diablo

The State Highway Traffic checking crew that has been surveying Mt. Diablo Boulevard this week, tomorrow moves to Highway 17, between Danville and Walnut Creek.

The crew is making a directional traffic survey — how many vehicles are going in which direction; and a origin and destination survey — where from and where to?

Survey stations are manned by about 16 men working in pairs, each pair consisting of an interviewer and recorder, plus electric computers to double check the count.

The crew worked on the Walnut Creek to Orinda section of the highway Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Captain Sandford Sez:

I understand that there will be a theatrical show in our Town Hall this summer . . . nothing commercial, you understand, because after all this area is zoned against business. Maybe fine free shows for us all, maybe not. It is quite evidently not what is done, but more who does it that registers on the target.

The old style ideas of merchandising are rapidly passing, and in larger communities the old fashioned merchants either learn the art of merchandising or are forced out of business. Many old time merchants have found that all that was required was to "Get there fustus with the mostus . . ." apologies to the memory of an old time American soldier.

Now many other elements have entered into the art of merchandising. First, parking facilities! Get the people into your store. Then come hundreds of other elements, attractive display, good merchandise, easy movement about the store, courteous and efficient help and so on ad infinitum.

I do hope that some folks will keep on washing and polishing their automobiles . . . we do need lots of rain yet.

AUNT JANE'S Korner for Kids

What's about the nicest thing a group of Girl Scouts could do on Easter vacation? That's right, go on a nature study hike!

And that's just what Mrs. Everett Dempster's section of Orinda Troop 32 did March 25. Mrs. Ralph Hall and Mrs. Dempster identified birds and plants the girls saw on the trip; but as one of the girls wisely stated, "We can name more wild flowers than birds because the flowers can't escape."

At any rate they did find many interesting mosses and discovered that the flora on Moraga Ridge, where they ate lunch, is most unusual for that area. The little group motored to Redwood Canyon and then hiked up the Ridge.

Included in the party were four guests from Mrs. Clyde Bumgarner's section; Naomi Pettengill, Diana Bumgarner, Phyllis Arnold, and Kathryn Monroe. The other hikers were Judy Hall, Lynn Sellman, June Haviland, Christine Winters and Marilyn Atkinson.

Well, let's see what the other section of Troop 32 did during the Easter Holiday! We'll have to follow them into the Berkeley Ice Rink and find out.

Mrs. Wight Buckle and Mrs. Bumgarner are surely busy keeping track of 11 energetic Girl Scouts from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Let's see, there are Ann Ward, Phyllis Arnold, Diane Beiderman, Betty Jane Buckle, Diana Bumgarner, Judy Johnson, Mary Ann Lucas, Naomi Pettengill, Carol Ann Reichtene, Linda St. Hill, and Catharine Monroe.

What pleasant memories to take back to school with you! I guess Easter is about the nicest time of year, isn't it?

New Orinda Cub Newspaper Depot Is Swamped With Contributions

The Orinda Cub Scout newspaper depot, across the street from the Fire House, has become so swamped with used newspapers and magazines that it has become necessary to delegate each week one of the seven dens to tie and stow away the papers.

Dens 1 and 2 including Don Reid, Peter Amdisen, John Conley, Ronald Green, Denis Meyer, David Oakley Ben Coombs, Richard Norman and Chip Peacock, under the direction of Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Peacock, took the first turn. Over 10,000 pounds are ready for shipment.

Future schedules made up by Cubmaster Charles Orr include: March 28 — April 3, Den 4; April 4-10, Den 5; April 11-17, Den 6; April 18-24, Den 7; April 25 — May 1, Den 1; May 2-8, Den 3; May 9-15, Den 2; May 16-22, Den 4; May 23-29, Den 5; May — June 5, Den 4; June 6-12, Den 7.

It also looks like the den dads will have to bundle and stack during the summer months unless they can round up enough cubs to do so.

Water Supply Held Adequate

Assurance that the Metropolitan Oakland area will have adequate water supply along with power, was given by John S. Longwell, chief engineer and general manager of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, this week.

Water supply is adequate to meet all ordinary uses, including gardening and filling of private swimming pools, according to Longwell.

Longwell added that the Pardee Reservoir on the Mokelumne River, which is the principal source, now is more than 94 per cent full.

Volunteers Help In Training Guide Dogs for Blind

A thoroughly trained guide dog and a blind master represent a cost of at least $1,000 for each man-dog unit, according to Mrs. Walter S. Heller, president of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., but the cost would be much greater if more than 150 volunteer workers did not contribute to that training.

Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., a non-profit organization which raises, trains and gives guide dogs to blind veterans and others in California, is conducting its annual membership campaign here this month. From the various types of memberships it seeks to raise its 1948 budget of $60,000 to make possible the training of six classes of blind persons and guide dogs during the year, and the completion of its Training School near San Rafael.

"The unselfish work of these volunteers makes it possible for Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., to provide more guide dogs for more blind people in our budget," said Mrs. Dan London, women's campaign chairman. "The $1,000 cost of a man-dog unit represents the cost of training each guide dog for three months, the additional month of training for the blind student, and a proportionate share of the operating expense of the Training School and kennels at San Rafael. Since no charge is made to the blind person for his guide dog, the contribution of volunteer workers is considerable."

Your Garden

IN LAFAYETTE
AND ORINDA

BY
CONSTANCE HANSEN

April is about the best month in the garden here.

There is a wealth of bloom, with the plants either at the height of their seasonal loveliness or growing toward it, and a minimum of decay. This is the month of the bulb shows in the public display gardens, such as the one in the California Nursery grounds at Niles and of spring flower shows in cities and towns all over the state.

The wild flowers contribute their share to April's parade of bloom, and often they grow and make better plants in the home garden than in the wild. Most of the species of wild lilac or ceanothus can be seen in bloom in gardens or along the highways this month.

FOR HILLSIDES

The flowers are very tiny but are carried in such numbers as to give a cloudy blue effect to the whole shrub. Ceanothus sorediatus is the one which will be seen in bloom in quantity on each side of the tunnel. It is one of the less attractive ones for garden use, as the color is pale, but it makes a rather pretty effect massed on the hills where it is wild. Some of the other species with better flower color are very ornamental in the garden and are especially good for hillside plantings. They can be had in all different sizes, from low ground covers to tall tree-like forms.

The best place locally to see a good collection is in the hillside garden of L. L. Edmunds of Danville, just behind the Sunset Nursery. There is also a large planting of wild lilacs in the Tilden Regional Park, especially near the Brazilian room, and another on the Mills College campus.

For those who are interested in wild lilacs, the books 'Ceanothus' by Van Rensselaer and McMinn and 'Flowering Shrubs of California' by Lester Rowntree will be found helpful in understanding them and learning to recognize the different kinds.

WORK TO DO

There is plenty to do in the April garden besides enjoying the flowers, but it is a pleasant time of year to work outdoors. To keep the bulb beds from looking empty when their bloom is past, set out plants from flats of such shallow rooted things as stock, violas, petunias, asters, marigolds and so on.

Or scatter seeds of such quick-growing warm weather plants as zinnias, asters, or marigolds. If these are raked in and the ground kept moist, they should sprout in a few days. Annual phlox also makes a colorful summer ground cover in the bulb garden.

You can continue to plant gladiolus bulbs for summer bloom, and it is warm enough toward the middle of the month to plant dahlias. They will probably look better here where they are sheltered from the hot midday sun. If you didn't get tuberous begonia tubers started you can try planting the young seedling plants this month and next for midsummer and early fall bloom.

PLANT EVERGREENS

It is not too late to plant evergreens you still need, since they are balled or in containers, and it is very easy to plant them without disturbing the root system. Just be careful to see that they are not allowed to become too dry during the summer.

Prune deciduous flowering shrubs as they finish flowering, if they need it, not by shearing, but by thinning out the old flowering branches, cutting them back to the point of origin.

Perennials may also be set out still. The nurseries are well stocked up on the fine Pacific strain of delphinium in a wide range of blues and white. A plant set out now from a gallon can should bloom either this month or next, and send up a second crop later in the summer.

There are many other perennials which will provide summer and fall color. Several people have asked about starting chrysanthemums. They can be divided or grown from tip cuttings from January through May for fall flowers, but as I am one who prefers starting them late, I will give a more detailed account of their culture and care in next week's column.

TIME FOR SEEDS

Many kinds of seeds can be planted in the vegetable garden this month: chard, radishes, mustard greens, carrots, beets, string beans, and leaf lettuce. Toward the middle of the month start cucumbers, corn, squash, cantaloupe and lima beans. Set out plants of tomatoes, egg plant, and peppers.

A putty knife, the kind with not too stiff a blade and a little over an inch wide, is my favorite tool for cutting plants out of a flat. Water them in with liquid fertilizer or starter solution. If the weather is warm plants will get off to a better start if shaded with a piece of shingle, or newspaper for a few days.

Berry vines and strawberry plants should be sidedressed with a commercial fertilizer at the rate of one cup of fertilizer for every berry bush and 4 pounds for every hundred feet of rows of strawberries.

FERTILIZE

Topdress the lawn with fine topsoil enriched with a chemical fertilizer. If you planted vegetable seeds earlier this spring, they will benefit by a side dressing of commercial fertilizer. Start feeding your roses, and keep it up at regular intervals. Some rose enthusiasts fertilize their plants once a week with liquid fertilizer, but doing it at intervals of two to four weeks gives good results too.

Pests grow well in the spring also, the most noticeable ones this month being the slugs, snails and aphids. Put out bait for the slugs and their relations, and spray with a contact insecticide, such as rotenone or Black Leaf 40 for the aphids.

A good combination spray is the Black Leaf 40 with a summer oil. This will get not only aphids, but any scale insects which happen to start the crawling stage this month. Either spray regularly every ten days or two weeks, or else keep a sharp lookout for aphids, as they can build up an incredible population in nothing flat.

Lafayette Girl and Orinda Boy to Attend Boys' and Girls' State

Maureen Rucker of Lafayette and Bill Morrish of Orinda have been chosen to represent this area at the week-long Boys' and Girls' State to be held in Sacramento in June.

The Lafayette American Legion and the Auxiliary are sponsoring the Acalanes boy and girl, each organization providing necessary funds for a delegate.

Selection of the pair was determined by Neil Parsons, superintendent, Lily L. Lahti, dean of girls and Stanley W. Walgren, dean of boys.

Selection was made on the basis of integrity, ability, scholarship, sportsmanship and moral character. At this annual event delegates establish and execute model government on the city, county and state level.

Maureen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark E. Rucker of Los Arabis and Bill is the son of Kendrick B. Morrish of Irvine Drive, Orinda.

The Walnut Creek Legion Post is sponsoring Janice Comstock of Saranap and James Edward French of Walnut Creek as representatives to the same conference. They also attend Acalanes.

Frosty, Samoyede War Dog, Awarded First Victory Medal for Service

The first Victory medal ever awarded to a war dog was presented recently to Frosty, owned by Barbara Stewart, formerly of Lafayette now residing in Concord. Frosty, a pure white Samoyede, is one of 24 in Miss Stewart's kennels. He won recognition for service in the quartermaster corps as a lead dog in Attu, Iceland and Greenland.

M/Sgt. Don Steward of the Oakland Army recruiting office presented the medal.

Not only did the army like Frosty, but Frosty liked the army according to Miss Stewart. Once he ran away from the kennels because he apparently was lonesome for the army life. His owner found him after a month's absence helping to guard German prisoners at Sacramento.

Registration Tally Shows Democrats Lead Two to One

A tally of registered voters completed by Contra Costa County reveals that Democrat registration continues to hold an almost two to one majority over Republican in the County.

A total of 58,012 have registered Democrat as of March 8, an increase of 10,620 since January 23, it was revealed in a statement of registration which will be forwarded to Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan.

The Republican total of 30,299 represented an increase of 3504.

A total of 352 registered in the Independent Progressive party, which was formed a short time ago to back the Henry Wallace campaign for the Presidency.

County Clerk Walter T. Paasch said a second registration tally will be made at the close of registration for the June 1 primary election.

Here's Where You Can Register

Civic leaders in Lafayette and Orinda are urging all persons who are eligible to register so they may vote in the coming primary election June 1.

Residential qualifications are: residence in California for one year, in Contra Costa County for 90 days and in the precinct for 30 days.

The county clerks office explains that new registration is needed if a person moves from one house to another in the precinct, or even from one apartment to another within an apartment house.

Leaders emphasize that local voting strength will be increased greatly if the hundred upon hundreds of new residents, who have moved here since the last election will register.

The following are registers of voters in this area:

In Orinda: Mrs. Warren Harrold, Harrold Real Estate Office in the Village.

In Lafayette: Col M. M. Garrett in the Garrett Building near the Post Office; Katherine Schutt, Acalanes Real Estate office, 40 Brook St. (if you wish to register in the evening, phone in advance 4476); and M. H. Stanley, 85 Moraga Blvd.

Committee Plans Study of Power Conservation

Mayor Lawson Weill of Walnut Creek has appointed a three man committee to supervise the power conservation program in that area. The action came upon the request sent in by R. P. O'Brien, the state emergency power head.

The new program calls for a more drastic power cut and 20 percent reduction in home use. Agricultural users must reduce their use, and outdoor advertisers and sports lighting are drastically curbed under this order.

NIECE VISITS SHIRLINGS

Mrs. R. Mutschler of Long Beach and her two children, Tommy and Timmy, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Shirling on Yorkshire Drive. They left Wednesday afternoon for Richmond where they will visit Mrs. Mutschler's father before returning to Southern California. Before her marriage, Mrs. Mutschler was Dorothy Smith and attended Acalanes High School.

Disposition Made Of Walnut Crop

Disposition has been made of most of the salable walnuts harvested last year by members of the growers' co-op, according to Co-op executives. It is expected that a few thousand on consignment in eastern markets will be gone by the time the 1948 crop is processed.

A heavy advertising campaign was necessary last year since there was a big carryover of the 1946 crop to move out of the way of the 1947 nuts, the Co-op continued.

The small carryover this year is attributed to the fact that walnut prices are lower than last.

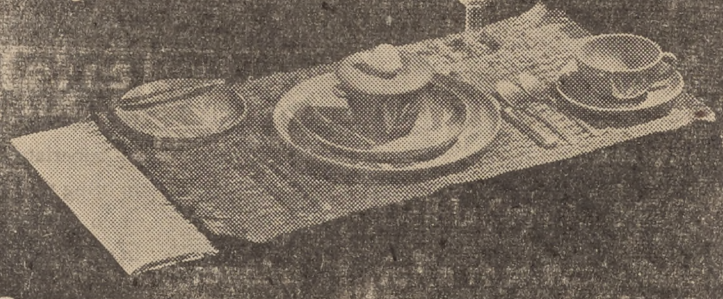

The growers co-op reported that the 1947 crop was below average in both quantity and quality. Only 51 per cent were graded as Diamonds, the top grade. The nuts which have not been sold are good only for shelling.

The growers association is making no estimate at this time of the coming crop, because of lack of rain.

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Erwin Mattson

Opening games of high school baseball in Contra Costa County brought to light new pitchers who will be heard from as the season goes on.

Diablo came up with Big Jim Powell, a six foot three Junior who went in as a relief chucker in the late innings and did O.K. for his first turn at a league try.

Dave Johnson of Acalanes went on display for his initial league contest and showed promise as he turned in a two hit performance. AT ALHAMBRA

Over Alhambra way Harland of Antioch put on a one hit show which gave notice that Antioch is a definite contender for league honors in its first year of league play.

The main thing that a coach looks for in a prospective pitcher is a strong arm, control and above all a desire to succeed through lots of hard work.

Above all else he must have the proper mental outlook.

NEED CONTROL

Control is the essential element that a pitcher must have before he can get very far. Many a pitcher has had worlds of stuff and blinding speed but inability to hit the plate renders him useless.

A pitcher should always throw to a target such as the catcher's right shoulder, left knee, the glove and sundry spots. The target shooting is a must in practice as well as in games because once mastered it means that the biggest hurdle to success has been overcome.

OTHER FACTORS

Speed and curves come into the picture later. A change of pace is the best trick in the bag. The term refers to nothing more than throwing with various speeds. The secret lies in making the arm and body motion appear the same with variance being obtained by various methods of ball grip and release.

A peculiar thing is that good hitters have the greatest trouble with a change.

Poor hitters have such poor form and ability that they can't be fooled as they fail to recognize a change.

HERE'S THE RULE

The rule is generally to fast ball a "weak sister" at the plate and keep a good hitter balance with a change.

We were interested in hearing the comments of a prominent big league scout in regards to the things they look for in prospects. Sensational hitting, fielding and base running are not the prime prerequisites for catching a scout's eye.

LOOK FOR COLOR

First thing is that indefinable thing known as "color." The way a player wears his uniform, how he appeals to the crowd, physical appearance in general plus potential ability.

The first thing a scout inquires about is the personal habits and attitude of the individual concerned. Worlds of ability and color are wasted if the person lacks that which we call character.

LEISURE TIME

Baseball by its very nature means days on the road and more than the usual number of leisure hours. It's how he takes care of that spare time that determines whether he can make the grade. Baseball is filled with those rugged individualists who in the process of burning the candle at both ends have lasted quick.

They are a headache to coach, management and fellow players.

Today a scout will always ask, "What is his attitude?" "Can he get along with other players?" "Is he willing to learn or does he know all the answers?"

For every one that gets to the top of the game there are dozens that fall by the wayside and the secret of success is not so much a variance in ability as it is in attitude.

SWIMMING

Swimming has been a regular activity at Acalanes recently as a result of the recent installation of a heating system which keeps the water at a pleasant 78.

It's an odd sight to see swimmers in the pool with rain coming down as the surface of the water gives off a cloud of steam. The warm water often results in the cry of "pass the soap."

Richmond Nine Edges Acalanes 2-1 As Rain Causes 4 Game Postponement

Acalanes baseball players have been having an irregular season with practice and games hampered by the late rains.

Easter week found four games scheduled with all 60 squad members set to take part only to have all but one cancelled out.

March 25th, the Don varsity gave a highly rated Richmond High nine trouble all the way before dropping a 2-1 contest.

3 ON MOUND

Roy Vanden Hueval and Dave Johnson shared mound duties and let the opposition down with three safeties one of which was of the scratch hit variety. Johnson also lead the hitting attack with a sharp double to deep center in the fifth canto.

Last Tuesday found the Junior varsity playing hot and cold as they lost to the Richmond Junior varsity 10-3. A number of players were given tryouts with Bruce Stevens, Forrest Borghesani and George Kallas on the mound.

Star of the day was catcher George Cockerton who hit 3 for 3 and slapped a home run in the process of fattening his batting average.

MEET ALHAMBRA

April 2 finds the varsity meeting Alhambra on the Martinez diamond. The game was originally set for Acalanes but rains have prevented getting the diamond in shape with the result that play location was switched.

The tentative starting lineup finds Bill Piona behind the plate with Dave Johnson doing the chucking. Benny Strickland holds down the initial sack with Claude Bolender at third, Ken Jones at short nad Don Wells at the key-stone spot. In the outfield, left-field finds Andrew Jarvis, Lynn Amason in center and Roy Vanden Hueval in right.

Alhambra rates as a favorite in the pennant race and boasts the leagues top left hander in veteran Filmeo.

Dog Show Set For April 25

Mt. Diablo Dog Training club members prepared this week to send prospective entrants to their show April 25 at Acalanes High a premium list for their first AKC licensed Obedience Trial.

Forty trophies are offered for wins and places in the five events of the show. Prizes will be given for dogs of almost every breed making passing scores, Mrs. Dorothea Bullock, trophy chairman, said this week.

About 100 trained dogs of all breeds are expected to compete in this show which will become an annual event.

Mass Flight to be Financed by Sale Of Sponsor Badges

John V. Manners of Lafayette, vice president of the Contra Costa County Development Association, said today, "Every resident of Lafayette, in fact everyone in the county should be interested in the 'Mass Flight' of 1500 planes coming to Buchanan Field, Concord, on May 1-2".

This is the greatest publicity stunt ever attempted by and for our county, he added.

The Los Angeles Jr. Chamber of Commerce, ever alert to such promotional opportunities, is co-sponsoring the event with the Aviation Committee of the Contra Costa County Development Association, of which Manners is an active member.

The 'Mass Flight' is being financed by the sale of Sponsors' Badges through service clubs and other organizations throughout the county. Manners urged everyone to buy one of these badges and show Los Angeles this county knows how to put over a good show.

Three sponsors will be chosen from those holding badges for an all expense round trip to Honolulu by air with a week at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, a flight to New York and back, with a week at the Waldorf-Astoria and a flight to Reno and return with a stay at the New Mapes Hotel. Each award entitles two persons to participate.

G.O.P. Assembly Endorses Three

At a meeting of the Contra Costa Republican Assembly directors held in Lafayette Tuesday night the candidacies of Raymond Van Tassel of Alamo and C. D. Erickson of Richmond for the State Senate and the State Assembly, respectively, were unanimously endorsed.

The group previously endorsed Robert Friborg in his race for Congress from the 6th district which comprises all of Contra Costa and part of Alameda Counties.

The Assembly directors planned a Registration Drive to be sponsored by the individual units of the Assembly in Walnut Creek, Orinda, San Ramon Valley Area and Lafayette. The chairmanship of the Assembly New Unit Organization Committee was accepted by Ray Van Tassel. It will be the responsibility of this committee to form units promptly in Concord, Pittsburg, Antioch, Martinez and Crockett.

Carlson Talks At GOP Rally In Walnut Creek

A Republican Rally was held Monday night in Walnut Creek under the auspices of the Republican Assembly, with Arthur W. Carlson of Danville, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, as the speaker.

The meeting was opened by Rodger Guichard, president of the Walnut Creek Assembly, who turned it over to W. B. Freeman of Lafayette. After reviewing the groups at Lafayette, Orinda, Danville, Pittsburg and Walnut Creek, Freeman presented Col. M. M. Garrett as the chairman for the evening.

Col. Garrett in turn presented Mr. Carlson who reviewed the national and foreign affairs and prospective presidential candidates. He expressed the opinion that Gov. Warren has a good chance of being the party nominee for president.

Other speakers for the evening were: J. R. Friborg, candidate for congress for this district, Ray Van Tassel, candidate for State Senator, and W. R. Sharkey of Martinez.

Acalanes Sets Occupation Meet

Preparatory to a forth coming schoolwide "Career Day", Acalanes girls will assemble Tuesday to be briefed on occupations for women.

As an authority in the field, Dr. Marian Brown, coordinator of occupational adjustment of the Oakland Public Schools, will be principal speaker. In her survey of women's work, Dr. Brown will emphasize the less well known career opportunities.

The conference is sponsored and financed by the Acalanes Girls' League.

Both boy and girl students last Tuesday indicated the three vocations in which they were most interested, as a basis for selecting occupations to be presented by Career Day speakers from these fields. The vocational guidance day is scheduled for April 28.

Clyde R. Sweet Sues For Rights to Interest in Part of Fathers' Estate

Clyde Robert Sweet began litigation to establish his rights to a one-fourth interest in promissory notes valued at $86,294, part of the estate of his father, Clyde O. Sweet, this week.

Filed in the County Superior Court, the notes represent payments on real estate handled by his father.

Sweet's complaint states that Mrs. Gladys F. Sweet, the widow, has taken over the notes as her personal property, even though the terms of his father's will specify the notes as community property and subject to division between Mrs. Sweet, another son, Richard O. Sweet, and himself.

According to Sweet, Mrs. Sweet is entitled to a half interest in the notes, and the sons a quarter interest each.

Defendants also named in the action were the Bank of America, as executors of the estate, and the American Trust Company, as holder of collateral security for an unnamed obligation.
